

University of Dayton eCommons

---

News Releases

Marketing and Communications

---

6-22-1967

The Three-Part Summer Religion in Life Series Will Feature Panel Discussions and Lectures

Follow this and additional works at: https://ecommons.udayton.edu/news\_rls

---

Recommended Citation

"The Three-Part Summer Religion in Life Series Will Feature Panel Discussions and Lectures" (1967). News Releases. 3154.
https://ecommons.udayton.edu/news\_rls/3154

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Marketing and Communications at eCommons. It has been accepted for inclusion in News Releases by an authorized administrator of eCommons. For more information, please contact frice1@udayton.edu, mschlangen1@udayton.edu.

DAYTON, Ohio, June 22, 1967 --- The three-part Summer Religion in Life Series at the University of Dayton in June and July will cover the philosophy of Saul Alinsky in Black Power and social change, celibacy: priesthood and personal fulfillment; and Mary: Men and God. All programs, June 27, July 11 and 18, will be held at 7:30 P.M. on the University of Dayton Campus.

The opening program will be a panel discussion next Tuesday, June 27, by three men who have recently returned from an intensive 10-day study course in Saul Alinsky's philosophy of social change particularly among minority groups. Title of their discussion will be "Saul Alinsky: Black Power and Social Change."

The three-member panel will consist of Bro. Leo Murray, S.M., Theology Department, University; Rev. Cody Bush, Assistant Pastor, Mt. Olive Baptist Church, Dayton, and Mr. Curtis Niles, a member of the NAACP of Greene County. This program is scheduled for O'Leary Auditorium, Miriam Hall, at 7:30 P.M.

The trio spent June 12 to 23rd at the Industrial Area Institute of Chicago, national headquarters for training in the Alinsky approach to community problems. This trip was sponsored by MALACHI (Metropolitan Area Laymen's Academy and Coffee House Incorporated) and also served as an investigation into Alinsky's success with racial problems in other cities.

The second program, "Celibacy: Priesthood and Personal Fulfillment," will feature Rev. Quentin Hakenewerth, S.M., Provincial Assistant of Spiritual Affairs and Apostolic Works for the St. Louis Province of the Society of Mary. Father Hakenewerth's lecture will center around the examination of the search for personal fulfillment within celibacy. He will approach the subject from the viewpoint of personality dynamics.

Holding a masters degree in clinical psychology from Loyola University of Chicago, Father Hakenewerth is a 1951 graduate of the University of Dayton and has taught in St. Louis, Kirkwood, Missouri; San Antonio, Texas, and Fribourg, Switzerland. The lecture will be held in the Ballroom, July 11 at 7:30 P.M.

The third and final lecture will be given by Rev. Henry Koester, S.T.D., a Marian scholar from Vallendar/Rhein, Germany. Rev. Koester, who participated in Vatican II, is a visiting priest-scholar for the Summer Graduate Program in UD's Theology Department. Besides teaching in the UD program, Father Koester will make 10 visits to other Catholic Universities in the East and Midwest to give one-day lectures on Mariology. He is one of the foremost authorities on the subject in the world. Father Koester's Religion in Life lecture will be "Mary: Men and God" on July 18 in the Ballroom at 7:30 P.M.